

Wayne Soil and Water Conservation District

---

428 West Liberty Street
Wooster, Ohio 44691
Phone: 330-263-5376

September 17, 2019

Dear Friends:

Fall is here and November 7th is right around the corner! We are anticipating a good turnout for our 72nd Annual Meeting and Banquet. The meeting will be held in the lower level of The Barn Restaurant in Smithville on Thursday, November 7th. Cost of the meal will be $15 for ages 13 & up; Children ages 4-12 will be $10; age 3 and under are free.

This years schedule is as follows:

- *Voting will take place from 5:30-6:30 pm (*time change from last year)
- Drop your tickets in a raffle bag of your choice and visit with your friends 5:30-6:30 pm
- Family Style Meal 6:30 pm
- Presentation/Meeting, Awards and Raffle drawing will begin after the meal 7:30 pm

The meal will consist of: chicken, ham & roast beef, mashed potatoes, green beans, salad, homemade bread, pie and a beverage.

All meal tickets purchased will receive two complimentary tickets that can be dropped into a drawing of your choice. We will have gift certificates and other prizes for you to choose from. To receive the two complimentary tickets, you must present the meal ticket at the door.

Our guest speaker this year will be Greg Wiles. Dr. Wiles will speak on "Dating Ohio's History with Tree Rings" and share how the College of Wooster Tree Ring Lab has dated over 70 buildings in Ohio and surrounding states.

He is the Ross K. Shoolroy Chair of Natural Resources and professor of Earth Sciences at The College of Wooster. His primary research is in the fields of glacial geology and paleoclimatology, working in Ohio and Alaska. Dr. Wiles teaches Geomorphology, Climate Change, and Environmental Geology at the College.

He attended Beloit College in Wisconsin and the Universities of Binghamton and Buffalo. After earning his Ph.D., he was a post-doctoral fellowship at the Lamont-Doherty Earth Observatory. He has taught at Wooster for over 20 years.

Due to the location, ticket sale deadline is October 28th. Tickets are available in our office.

We look forward to seeing you at our 72nd Annual Meeting and Banquet.

Sincerely,

Wayne SWCD Board of Supervisors

Jeff Gochnauer      Matt Peart
Dustin Ramsier      John Redick
Scott Stoller

Office Personnel

Kathy Burley      Taylor Gilmore
Stacey Hiller      Rob Kastner
Adam Liston      Kelly Riley